GAIN EXPERIENCE OVER SUMMER

Stepping into summer means getting closer to your career. The summer vacation is your chance to get work experience and gain varied transferrable skills to support your personal and professional development. View the latest roles live on MyJobsOnline and customise your search to be alerted of the latest roles as they arrive.

EXPLORE YOUR PLACEMENT OPTIONS

Are you enrolled on a four-year programme with a placement year or considering transferring to one? Either way, we want to help you with planning your placement adventure before you leave for the summer vacation.

There are different options available depending on your course type, so make sure you learn everything about the placement offer at the University of Reading. The dedicated team is on hand to answer all your questions, guide you through the application process, and provide support throughout your placement.

GAIN LEADERSHIP SKILLS

Teach First is now open for applications to join the Leadership Development Programme in July 2018! Apply early to secure your place this June. They are particularly keen to receive applications from Reading students.

The Teach First Leadership Development Programme combines a fully-funded leadership qualification Postgraduate Diploma in Education, worth double the credits of a PGCE, with one-to-one coaching, giving you leadership qualities you can take into any career. Companies such as Accenture, PwC, Royal Navy and Goldman Sachs partner with Teach First to offer job opportunities once you complete the programme. Hear from Graduates who have stayed on to teach here.

BE THE BOSS

Enter CEO for a Day and you could be working alongside a top UK boss. You’ll share their office, join them at meetings, briefly, you’ll walk in their shoes, and learn what great leadership means.

If you are interested in best management practices, this is the experience for you. Brush up your CV, think about why you deserve a place in the scheme, and apply.

YOU HAVE UNTILL 30 JUNE 2017.
