Module Request Form 2019-20

Undergraduate and Postgraduate Taught

This form is for students who wish to request a change to their module selection particularly when adding an optional module which is not in their current programme. Please note:

- you may take a maximum of 20 credits from modules outside of your programme, if the rules of your programme allow this,
- you may take a maximum of 20 credits below or above your part of study, including Institute Wide Language modules (IWLP),
- requests for a module which has restricted spaces will only be processed after the main online module selection period has closed,
- approval of this form does not guarantee you a place, particularly on a module with restricted spaces,
- you should continue to attend all classes until the outcome of this request to change a module is confirmed to you in writing by the Support Centre/Henley Business School,
- you may not change a compulsory module.

Full time Undergraduates should study 120 credits of modules per Part. Full time Postgraduate Taught students should study 180 credits of modules.

All sections of this form must be completed before passing it to your Programme Director/Advisor, Module Convenor of the module selected and Support Centre / Henley School Office, for approval.

Before making any decisions you may wish to seek advice from their Academic Tutor and/or consult the relevant Programme Specification/s found on the University of Reading website: http://www.reading.ac.uk/progspecs/.

WARNING: The final deadline to change optional modules taught during the Autumn Term is Friday 18th October 2019 at 12:30 pm (midday) The final deadline to change optional modules taught during the Spring or Summer terms is Thursday 23rd January 2020 at 5:00 pm.
