Welcome

To the 2018 Primary Teacher Recruitment Fair

With a number of Local Authorities represented, today’s event will help you navigate the process of joining the teaching profession. This is your opportunity to speak to headteachers, NQTs and recruitment professionals about your future career in teaching and to find out what each Local Authority can offer. You can also find out about the application process.

Local Authority representatives and recruitment agencies are based in L22 G03/04.

You may have a perception of Buckinghamshire as a leafy green, affluent county - but we are very diverse and have a lot to offer. We have large town centre schools in areas of real deprivation, grammar schools and small village primary schools.

Our schools work closely together, sharing best practice and supporting each other. We have great training, development and support for NQTs. We also have a great range of benefits and discounts. Come and visit our stand and find out more.

Start your teaching career in Buckinghamshire and enjoy professional opportunities, support and targeted development. We can offer you a wonderful diversity of environments in which to live and teach, all within easy reach of London.

Buckinghamshire is renowned for excellent schools at all levels, with reputations consistently endorsed by OFSTED findings. We also recruit NQTs for British Schools overseas in a wide variety of countries.
Around 700 NQTs join Hampshire’s 500+ schools each year – come and join us! We have a comprehensive support programme for NQTs with help available from educational experts. We offer a wide range of professional development opportunities, including courses, networking and support throughout your teaching career in Hampshire.

Hampshire is an attractive county and a great place to live and work. It has it all, from stunning coastline and beautiful countryside to the many exciting vibrant cities and towns. Vacancies are updated daily and will highlight NQT-suitable posts. Make Hampshire a part of your future!

Harrow Primary Schools

Harrow Primary Schools is a partnership of schools who work closely together to improve outcomes for all stakeholders in the Harrow Community and area. The partnership which relies on mutual respect for every school aims to ensure that all schools can benefit from collaboration, networking, joint professional development and teamwork.

Leigh Academies Trust

Leigh Academies Trust is a multi-Academy Trust of 17 schools which are based across south east London and Kent.

As part of Leigh Academies Trust you will have the opportunity to collaborate with your peers and share best practice at Academy level and across the whole Trust. This is an important part of our vision as we know through experience that we perform better when we work together. You will also be expected to undertake regular self-development to continue your professional development and hopefully progress further within the organisation.
Reading Borough Council

Newly qualified teachers are very well supported and our induction programme is renowned for its excellence.

Reading is a compact local authority both in terms of geographic area and number of schools, but with a strong sense of community.

All schools manage their own recruitment and you will need to apply directly to the school.

Reading... There’s no better place to start your career!

Surrey (Eteach)

At Eteach we support you throughout your entire teaching career. Whether you are looking for your first role as an NQT, your next teaching position, or if you’re ready to take that step up to leadership – we have the advice and jobs for you.

Eteach can also help if you’re looking for specialised roles, such as SEN or supply, and actively work with thousands of state, independent, academy schools and colleges in the UK and beyond!

The British School of Kuwait

The British School of Kuwait (BSK) is widely regarded as the premier school in the country and is a founding member of the British Schools in the Middle East. It’s latest inspection report, conducted on behalf of the UK Department of Education, confirms its status as an 'outstanding' school. It recently became a member of the Nord Anglia group of leading schools. It is a private, coeducational, day-school with over 3,600 students from KG to Year 13.

It follows the National Curriculum of England and offers public examinations at GCSE, IGCSE, AS and A-level through Edexcel, AQA and Cambridge International Examination boards.
The London Diocesan Board for Schools

The Diocese of London has 156 primary and secondary schools in Inner and Greater London across 18 LAs - city, suburban and rural settings. We are looking for enthusiastic and talented teachers who would enjoy working within the ethos of church schools.

Applicants will be offered a professional development interview before a panel of headteachers, which will be an excellent preparation for the real thing.

The Schools HR Co-Operative Ltd
Hillingdon and West London

We recruit NQT's on behalf of the London Borough of Hillingdon, West London Boroughs and Counties for their Primary schools. We try and recruit at least 100 + each year. Students can apply on our website where further information is available.

West Berkshire Primary Headteachers’ Association

The association provides representation, collaboration and wellbeing for school leaders. It acts to 'oil the cogs' of effective school leadership across West Berkshire supporting schools with leadership matters including recruitment and retention.
Wokingham is a great place to live and work. Our vibrant schools offer comprehensive induction and support whichever sector you chose. Our schools are at the heart of our communities playing an important role in improving life chances for every child.

Wokingham Borough Council has over 50 school establishments around the wider Reading area. Our teaching staff are valued through comprehensive professional development and support and our NQTs experience a high level of success.

Recruitment Agencies

Academics are an education recruitment company who work in partnership with schools across the country. We specialise in placing teachers into long term and permanent positions. We support NQTs with careers advice and interview preparation to ensure that they make the right choices as they enter the teaching profession.
